Protect Yourself from Carbon Monoxide

Safe, clean, reliable natural gas is a smart way to stay warm and comfortable this winter. When appliances are installed properly and are operating efficiently, natural gas burns cleanly and safely. But it's important to make sure all fuel-burning heaters and appliances are working properly to prevent the creation of carbon monoxide. Carbon Monoxide Alarms can detect a presence of Carbon Monoxide poisoning in your home or business.

Economic Development Fueled by New Mexico Gas Company

New Mexico Gas Company is committed to making our state a better place to live and do business. One of the ways we strive to improve New Mexico is through a $5 million economic development fund provided by our corporate owner, Emera Inc. In handing out awards to organizations across the state, Emera and New Mexico Gas Company are seeking to build collaborative relationships that foster a culture of innovation and entrepreneurship. Emera's goal is to develop infrastructure and promote economic prosperity in New Mexico and the locations of other company affiliates. We do this because we care about the places we live and work.

Importantly, the award program is supported at the expense of Emera shareholders, meaning New Mexico Gas Company customers will never see a rate increase because of this fund.
